IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CIVIL APPLICATION NO.561 OF 2006

IN

FIRST APPEAL NO.2074 OF 2005

Sukhvinder R.Malhotra ...Applicant

Versus

Mrs.Geetanjali Sukhvinder Malhotra ...Respondent

.....

Mr.Rajesh Datar for Applicant.

Mr.M.M.Chopra for Respondent No.1.

.....

CORAM: A.M.KHANWILKAR, J.

FEBRUARY 23, 2006.

P.C.

1. After hearing Counsel for the parties, on suggestion made by me, both the parties who are present in Court have agreed for the arrangement which is indicated hereinafter so as to provide access of the minor child.

2. The Applicant or his parents will visit the residence of Respondent between 9.00 a.m. and 5.00 p.m. and give intimation of their arrival at the entrance of the residence of Respondent, in which case, the Respondent or her family members available at the relevant time shall ensure that the child is handed over to the Applicant or his parents who have come to take the child in terms of the arrangement directed by this Court so as to provide Applicant and his parents access to the minor child. The Applicant or his parents will also ensure that the child is dropped back at the residence of the Respondent within specified time in terms of order dated 15th December 2005.

2. Both parties agree to observe this arrangement in its letter and spirit. The requirement of bringing the minor child to be handed over to the Applicant or his parents at the entrance of the residence of Respondent on the ground floor is on account of the apprehension expressed by the Applicant and also to obviate any untoward situation in the residence of the Respondent.

3. The above arrangement is without prejudice to the rights and contentions of the parties in the pending proceedings.

4. Application disposed of on the above terms.

A.M.KHANWILKAR, J.
